- Get up to speed on SZ4D initiative and science
- Become comfortable speaking up and asking questions

SZ4D Code of Conduct

SZ4D is committed to fostering the exchange of ideas and is dedicated to maintaining a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for all participants, no matter their function or their background. This includes respectful treatment of everyone.

SZ4D activities, including meetings, are sponsored under awards from the National Science Foundation to the University of Washington and University of California. SZ4D strongly supports and actively promotes our institutional policies prohibiting discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, pregnancy status, age, disability, medical condition, ancestry, citizenship, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or veteran status.

Any violation of this anti-discrimination policy will be taken seriously and is necessarily reported to the managing university for further investigation.

SZ4D Code of conduct

REPORTING UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOR

- Bystander intervention is encouraged. If someone is acting against our Code of Conduct, address it as directly as you can and report as necessary. For more information see: Take Steps to Prevent Harassment (https://www.nsf.gov/od/oecr/promising_practices/prevent_harassment.jsp)
- Reports of any potential violation of the Code of Conduct can be made to the SZ4D Program Manager or the co-Chairs of the Building Equity and Capacity in Geosciences IG and will be routed to authorities as appropriate including legal authorities, home universities, and relevant funding organizations, including the National Science Foundation.
